

■ Handling of personal information

- The event organizer sets forth its personal information protection policy in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations
- The organizer collects and uses personal information for the event guidance, record notifications as well as to deliver event-related information, next events' schedule, event approvals, support and other services by organizing committee, and the record announcement. Also, we may contact customers to confirm their application details.
- For the safety of event participants or in emergency, the organizer may provide personal information to third parties.

■ Application terms

Participants must agree to the following terms below to participate in the event.

- 1 . No changes in the event category, no cancellations accepted and no refunds made under any circumstances.
- 2 . We will stop accepting entries once the limit is reached for the general division.
- 3 . If the event is cancelled due to earthquakes, flooding, heavy rains, snowfall, strong winds, incidents, epidemics and etc., participation fee will not be refunded, and also no refunds made for overpayments and mistaken multiple payments.
- 4 . The organizer will not be responsible for late arrival of participants on the event day due to public transport and traffic delays.
- 5 . Participants shall be responsible for taking full control of their own health care. Please try to be in the best physical conditions possible. If you feel unwell please withdraw from the race.
- 6 . The organizer will not be responsible for any illness or loss, accidents or emergencies.
- 7 . Participants under 18 must have their parents' consents.
- 8 . Participants who are determined unfit to continue the race by a competition officer may be disqualified.
- 9 . False statement of age or gender and replacement of an applicant are strictly prohibited. If found it will make the applicant disqualified. No provisions under any circumstances. No refunds of the participation fee.
- 1 0 . The organizer owns the copyright of all photos, articles, records, information on participants' name, age, address (name of countries, cities and regions) during the event and has all rights to disclose them on TV, radio, newspapers, magazines and internet.
- 1 1 . Wearing or displaying any designs and trademarks representing company/brand names and such for advertising purposes within the event venue or on the courses is prohibited.
- 1 2 . The organizer will not be responsible for any delayed applications due to telephone system malfunction or internet failure. (Online application cannot be made depending on a type of device, OS or web browser)
- 1 3 . The organizer shall comply with all privacy policy laws to conduct the event.
- 1 4 . Participants shall comply with instructions by the organizers regarding any event-related matters not covered above.